

CULINARY GROUP SPRING ACTIVITIES

April Means A Walk In The Woods At Adkins Arboretum.

Come enjoy a lovely stroll through the sprouting woodlands at Adkins Arboretum followed by a wonderful homemade soup lunch. We are scheduled for Friday, April 19th, from 11:00 to 1:30. Adkins is located in Ridgely, Md and we should plan to go in car pools. It is about a 45 minute drive. Reservations are a must and the group is limited to 25.

The cost is $28. Please reserve by sending your check to Julie McCahill, 24814 Swan Road, St. Michaels 21663 (or sign up at the April Woman's Club meeting). More information and driving directions will be sent after you sign up.

Lunch 'n' Learn With Sprout

On Friday, May 17th, from 10:30 – 12:30, we will be entertained by the new Sprout catering firm in Easton. Co-owner Ryan Groll will talk about their start as a business, how they function, their philosophy and their food. Their motto is: "Order. Eat. Thrive." Following his presentation, he will feed us lunch.

We will provide menus with 4-5 selections at a later date from which you may select your lunch choice. Estimated price for this event is in the $20 range, depending on your selection. We will provide beverages with lunch, including a spring wine selection.

Please sign up by contacting Betty Ann Seabury (eseabury14@gmail.com) or signing up at the April or May Woman's Club meeting.
