

Welcome to the holiday season! This year's holidays are very different from what we are accustomed to but we still hope to celebrate this joyous time of year.

The Woman's Club of St. Michaels Book Group will be reading two short stories for our December discussion. They are "Reginald's Christmas Revel" and "The Set of Poe." Following the discussion of the stories we will be sharing our own Christmas memories and mishaps. Because of the increased cases of Covid-19, our Christmas discussion will be held virtually on Zoom on Wednesday December 9th at 10:30 am.

Anyone who needs a copy of the short stories and is interested in participating in the discussion and sharing Christmas memories, please contact Sue Davis susandavis372@gmail.com for the stories and the Zoom meeting invitation.

Happy Holidays!
